

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Is the water famine over?

Lots of water at Morgan's sales-rooms!!

Go to T. W. Hobron if you want a good safe.

Typographical Union meeting as usual this evening.

Dr. J. M. Whitney has a family milch cow for sale.

There was no business in the Supreme Court yesterday.

Kiawe beans in lots to suit may be had at the Reformatory school.

Capt. A. W. Burns of the bark Lancelotti is not responsible for debts contracted by his crew.

J. J. Williams' photo gallery will be open this evening, and will be illuminated with electric lights.

The Anglican Church Chronicle for September is out, and is as usual, full of information on church matters.

A deputation of the Woman's Board of Missions, charged with a message of condolence, will be received by Her Majesty at the Palace this morning at 11 o'clock.

Members and sojourning brethren of Lodge la Progres de l'Océanie No. 24 are notified to meet at their hall to-morrow, to attend the funeral of the late Prince Consort.

A small printing press was sent by the Board of Education to the Lahainaluna Seminary, for the use of the students in acquiring a knowledge of the printing trade.

Several pieces of property in South Kona, Hawaii, will be sold (under foreclosure of mortgage) to-day at noon, at the auction room of Jas. F. Morgan, Queen street.

Robert Lehmann, a German lately employed on the Kekaha plantation, died Thursday at the Queen's Hospital and was buried yesterday, the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh officiating.

The Rev. Dr. Beckwith will hold the services in the Throne Room of the Palace to-morrow at 12:30 p. m., and there will be choral singing by young ladies from the Kawaiahaeo Seminary.

The list of burglaries published in yesterday's ADVERTISER omitted that committed some time ago at the Empire House, as well as those which were in progress as the paper was going to press.

The first division of Liliokalani Educational Society has been assigned a place in the funeral procession of His late Royal Highness the Prince Consort. Members will govern themselves accordingly.

A Chinaman, a neighbor of Seaborn Luce by the name of Achong, was brought into the Station last evening about 9 o'clock on the charge of insanity. He had only been discharged from the Asylum for about two weeks.

An enveloped package was picked up yesterday in King street, addressed to Mrs. J. D. Johnson, Keauhou, Kona, Hawaii, which the owner can recover by calling on Mrs. H. F. Walker, opposite Dr. Andrews' residence, King street.

Slippery Barefoot Bill—Not lacking his usual gall—Undertook to try the fill—At the store of E. O. Hall.

The skylight is paneled by one; Friend William is still "on the trail." The trophy was painlessly won; And he continues to "hooodoo" the jail.

His Honor Judge Dole took passage in the steamer W. G. Hall yesterday, intending to hold the September term of the Circuit Court of Kan at Waiohinu. Some legal gentlemen were also on board, including Paul Neumann, Deputy Attorney General Creighton, W. C. Achi, Enoch Johnson, and others.

The services of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral for to-morrow, Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity, will be as follows: 9:45 a. m., Holy Communion with sermon. King Hall's service in C will be sung. The Hymns are 314 and 323; 6:30 p. m., Evensong with sermon. The following hymns will be sung: 296, 248 and 266. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, pastor. All are invited.

The rainfall up to yesterday evening was 0.43 inches at Punahou and 0.45 in town. There was a shower at Waikiki during the night, but not a drop of rain there yesterday. The temperature was very oppressive, the thermometer touching 88 deg. at Waikiki, where there was neither rain nor wind. At Punahou it did not go above 81 deg. but reached 87 deg. the day before. The two days September 3d and 4th were among the most trying of the season.

The departure of the steamer Hall generally affords some amusement to the assembled crowd. Yesterday two orators—one a Waikuku passenger on the steamer and the other a local orator—stood on the wharf and addressed the crowd alternately, on politics, religion, Salvation Army matters, etc., indulging in some sharp repartee, which kept the audience in a continual roar of laughter. Hawaiians have a gift for this kind of amusement not surpassed by speakers of any other country.

To those who need a pleasant tonic for any kind of debility, we can recommend Clements' as the best. For sale by Hollister & Co.

PERSONALS.

Hon. S. B. Dole left in the Hall for Kau. After the close of the Court term, Justice Dole will visit Kilauea, returning via Hilo, in the Claudiene.

Mrs. John A. Hassinger leaves in the Zealandia for San Francisco, intending to give her son the benefit of a first-class education in California. Miss Hassinger accompanies her mother.

Deputy Attorney-General Creighton showed considerable pluck in starting off for Kau, with a broken rib, or what was supposed to be such. His motto seems to be "Obey orders, if you break the owners'."

James A. Wilder leaves in the Zealandia to resume his studies in Harvard's classic halls.

Mrs. Adams and daughter leave in the outgoing steamer, after a sojourn of two months as guests at the Hamilton.

Miss L. Hathaway, who has been visiting Mrs. F. J. Lowrey of this city for some weeks past, returns to her home in the Zealandia.

Mrs. E. C. Bond, of Kohala, is booked for the Zealandia, on a visit to relatives in San Francisco.

Dr. C. B. Cooper, who is Government physician for Kau, finds the climate of that district very invigorating. He was suffering from lung troubles, when he came here, but finds they have left him.

Too Much Water After All.

Someone left a faucet open at L. B. Kerr's night before last, with the result that the goods in the front portion of Morgan's auction rooms received a thorough drenching and considerable damage was done. The clerks upstairs hoped doubtless that the accumulation of water during the night would be enough to moisten the palms of their hands in the morning, never dreaming that there could be enough to overflow the basin.

The night of September 3d was one of floods. A badly-placed escape allowed a large quantity of water to run down into the Wigwam and the barber's shop adjoining, where it did a good deal of damage. There was not water enough, however, to stop a lively game of Pedro which was in full blast in the Wigwam. Nothing short of the Deluge would have sufficed for that.

Outward Bound per Zealandia.

J. Wightman, T. L. Murray, A. E. Pomeroy and son, Miss L. Hathaway, James A. Wilder, E. R. Miles, G. W. Maxon, Captain Freckleton, Mrs. E. C. Bond, Mrs. P. C. Adams and daughter, Frank D. Myer, Miss Jannita Hassinger, Miss Aldrich, Mrs. J. A. Hassinger and son, F. J. Lowrey, J. J. Egan, Hon. H. P. Baldwin and son, H. T. Conde.

"August Flower"

For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said stomach was about worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food for a time at least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recommendation of a friend who had used your preparations with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained in strength and flesh rapidly; my appetite became good, and I suffered no bad effects from what I ate. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DEDRICK, Sauterites, New York.

W. B. Utsey, St. George's, S. C., writes: I have used your August Flower for Dyspepsia and find it an excellent remedy.
